

Lunchtime Lecture: Consumer Protection in the 'Information Economy'

Professor Jane Winn – Charles I Stone Professor of Law, University of Washington, Seattle, USA

12.30 pm, Friday, 7 March 2008 All Welcome

Theatre G23, new Law Building, UNSW via Anzac Parade gate

*By public transport, enter from main UNSW gate on Anzac Parade, second building on left up walkway from main gate on Anzac Pde
There is limited meter parking on top floors of the UNSW car parks accessed from Barker St or Botany St, gate 11, however we cannot guarantee availability.*

Professor Winn

Professor Winn is the Charles I Stone Professor of Law and Director of the Shidler Center for Law, Commerce & Technology at the University of Washington, Seattle. She is a leading international authority on electronic commerce law and technological and governance issues surrounding information security. Her current research interests include electronic commerce law developments in the United States, the European Union, and China. She is co-author of Law of Electronic Commerce and editor of Consumer Protection in the Age of the 'Information Economy'.

In 2007 she taught Cybersecurity Law and Electronic Commerce Law as part of the Masters of Law course at the University of Melbourne Law School.

Professor Winn will speak for approximately 40 minutes with 20 minutes allocated for questions.

Professor Winn will be introduced by Gordon Renouf, Director Policy and Campaigns, CHOICE